

Submission Guidelines

The Asian Journal of English Language Teaching (AJELT) is an international refereed university press publication. A member of the Council of the Editors of Learned Journals (CELJ), AJELT is indexed in Linguistics Abstracts, Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, MLA International Bibliography, Sociological Abstracts, as well as The Asian Education Index. In addition, the journal collaborates with the International Association of Applied Linguistics (AILA): AILA members are provided AJELT subscriptions at reduced rates as part of their new or renewed membership. AJELT is also recognized as an important academic publication by the international organization, Teachers of English Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), and a description of the journal is noted on their homepage and in their print materials.

AJELT encourages submission of data-driven manuscripts that (1) link ESL/EFL theory, research, and pedagogy and (2) relate specifically to teaching English to Asians at the university level. Essay reviews (i.e., special issues or professional trends as well as books and multimedia resources) and reports of ongoing projects are also welcome (guidelines are provided below).

Manuscripts. Research articles should no more than 20 pages double-spaced in length; reports should be no longer than 12 pages. Authors should include a cover page with the full title of the paper, the author's name, e-mail address, postal address, phone number, and fax number. The author's name should not appear elsewhere in the article.

Research articles should be sent as e-mail attachments (i.e., Microsoft Word files) to Editors Gwendolyn Gong <ggong@cuhk.edu.hk> and Ali Shehadeh <Ali.Shehadeh@uaeu.ac.ae>. Review essays should be sent as electronic submissions to Review Editor, Lixian Jin <jin@dmu.ac.uk>.

It is important to include a statement indicating that the submission (1) has not been previously published (in English or other languages) and (2) is neither currently being reviewed nor will be submitted for review while the manuscript is being considered by AJELT.
