

Annual Workshop of the Project “The Formation and Development of the Disciplines in Twentieth Century China”

9 July 2009 (Thursday)
Speaker	Presentation Title
Allen Chun	From Sinicization to Indigenization in the Social Sciences: Is That All There Is?
Ya-chung Chuang	Studying Taiwan: The Academic Politics of bentü in Post-Authoritarian Taiwan
Brian Moloughney and Peter Zarrow	General discussion of History volume, including TOC and introduction
Q. Edward Wang, Liu Long-hsin and Peter Zarrow	Feedback on papers
Madeleine Dong, Brian Moloughney, and Axel Schneider	Feedback on papers
Luo Zhitian, James Leibold and Hon Tze-ki	Feedback on papers

10 July 2009 (Friday)
Speaker	Presentation Title
John Makeham	Hu Shi and the Search for System
Thierry Meynard	Introducing Buddhism as Philosophy: The Case of Liang Shuming, Xiong Shili and Tang Yongtong
Lauren Pfister	Feng Youlan’s Early Conception of Philosophy and Its History in China
Carine Defoort	Fu Sinian’s Views on the Tripartite Philosophy, Ancient Chinese Masters, and Chinese Philosophy
Yvonne Schulz-Zinda	Jin Yuelin’s Ambivalent Status as a ‘Chinese Philosopher’
Barry Steben	Nishi Amane and the Rise of Chinese Philosophy
Leigh K. Jenco	Thoughts on 20 th Century Chinese Philosophy
Wang Kai	Fengshui, Pattern, Calculation: The Establishment of Specialization of Architectural Work as Seen in Specialized Documents of the Early 20th Century
Wang Ying	The Content, Form and the Class Nature of Architecture
Duan Jianqiang	Landscape Architecture, the Concept of Garden, and Its Exposition in Chen Zhi’s Zaoyuan xue gailun