

CONGRATULATIONS TO PROFESSOR MEI
AND PROFESSOR TZENG

We here at Journal of Chinese Linguistics are very pleased to share with our readers the news that Professor Tsu-lin Mei and Professor Ovid J-L. Tzeng, both serving on our editorial board, were elected to the Academia Sinica, Republic of China in the summer of 1994. Professor Mei and Professor Tzeng are recognized for their decades of outstanding research in the field of language studies, particularly their important contributions to our understandings of the historical and psychological aspects of the Chinese language.

Our sincerest congratulations to Professor Mei and Professor Tzeng for the great honor.

JCL ANNOUNCEMENT

JCL acknowledges with appreciation the support received from the Chao Yuen Ren Center for Chinese Linguistics, based on a grant it received from the Chiang Ching Kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange. For announcement of the establishment of the Center, see JCL 22.1 p.176. The Center co-sponsors, with the Project on Linguistic Analysis, an annual Workshop on Chinese Linguistics. The papers presented at these workshops are subject to the normal review procedures and some of them will be published in JCL. The theme of the 1994 Workshop was "Periodization in the Development of the Chinese Language." The theme of the 1995 Workshop is "The Min Dialects."
