PIANO MASTER CLASS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Lance Wiseman

Lee Hysan Concert Hall
27 November 2014
8:00 p.m.

American pianist Lance Wiseman's musical background has been unique. At the age of fifteen, he was accepted into the Juilliard School, at that time the youngest to have been accorded this honor, where he coached as a scholarship student with Beveridge Webster. Upon receiving his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Juilliard, he was awarded second prize in the Emma Feldman International Piano Competition. He has coached with Byron Janis and Rosalyn Tureck, being one of a chosen few to have been accorded this honor. In 2001, he was the first American to adjudicate the Prokofiev International Piano Competition in Donetsk, Ukraine.

Among Lance Wiseman's concerto engagements, he has performed with the Thessaloniki State Symphony (Greece), Donetsk State Philharmonic (Ukraine), State of St. Petersburg (an orchestra of the St. Petersburg Philharmonic Society), San Francisco Chamber Orchestra. Recital engagements have included the Berlin Conservatory, Wigmore Hall (London), Grand Hall of the Zurich Conservatory, Gloria Theater (Athens), Thessaloniki State Theater (Greece), Donetsk Philharmonic State Theater (Ukraine), Glinka Capella State Theater (St. Petersburg), Tianjing Concert Hall, Xuzhou Concert Hall, Central Conservatory (Beijing), Tsinghua University, Capital Normal University, Peking Union Medical College, Inner Mongolia Keyboard Society, etc. He has recorded for the Piano Disc Label.
