

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
The International House
Resident Regulations

SECTION I. INTRODUCTION

The International House of The Chinese University of Hong Kong forms a living-learning community with both rights and responsibilities. Residents are expected to help cultivate a stimulating, congenial and mutually supportive environment in the hostel and get involved actively in a wide range of learning experience along different cultures and themes of hostel life. It is expected that residents will become well-rounded in their personal, intellectual and social development throughout the process.

SECTION II. INTERPRETATION

In the International House Resident Regulations:

“Hostel” means residential accommodation in the International House of The Chinese University of Hong Kong for residents.

“Resident Tutor/Senior Resident Tutor” means the resident tutor nominated by the University.

“The International House Management” means the joint management of the International House Management Committee, the International House Management Office, Warden and Resident Tutor.

“The International House Management Committee” means the University’s Committee commissioned for the stipulation of Hostel policies and the establishment of Hostel development and education.

“The International House Management Office” means the office and the University staff authorized by the Director of Student Affairs to oversee the daily operation and management of the Hostel premises.

“The International House Resident Association” means an organization formed by Hostel residents, to promote Hostel recreational and social activities and also to reinforce the Hostel discipline and cultural development.

“University” means The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

“Warden” means the warden or lady warden of the International House appointed by the University.

SECTION III. GENERAL INFORMATION

Article 1: Admission to Residency

- 1.1. All undergraduates who would like to reside in the International House should fill in application forms through their affiliate colleges and promise to observe the Hostel Regulations. Applicants approved by both the International House Management Committee and their respective Colleges’ Hostel Selection Committees are then eligible for a hostel place.
- 1.2. On condition that space flexibility allows, residents may choose their own roommates or flat-mates (if applicable) before entrance.
- 1.3. The International House Management has the final decision in the assignment of rooms and flats (if applicable) to the residents.
- 1.4. Residents are not allowed to exchange their rooms without the Warden’s express permission.
- 1.5. All residents must pay their hostel fees and damage deposit (including key deposit).
- 1.6. The amount and the due date for the payment are to be decided by the International House Management Office.
- 1.7. All keys and smart card (if applicable) of International House are not to be lent to any other persons.

- 1.8. Residents are prohibited to duplicate flat keys (if applicable) or room keys and the smart card (if applicable) without authorization. Any lost key and smart card (if applicable) should be reported to the International House Management Office immediately.

Article 2: Withdrawal

- 2.1. In the case where a resident suffering from illness has been certified by the University Health Centre as unsuitable to remain in residence, the person would need to withdraw from the Hostel either temporarily or permanently.
- 2.2. A resident who terminates his/her studies at the University at any time during an academic year should vacate his/her room forthwith. Prepaid hostel fees in excess of his/her actual residence period will be refunded upon the approval of the International House Management Committee.
- 2.3. For a resident who withdraws from the Hostel due to other reasons, such as withdrawal from study, or personal reasons approved by the International House Management Committee, prepaid hostel fees are not to be returned if he/she has already resided for two months or more. In the case where the resident withdraws within the first two months of residence, prepaid hostel fees in excess of his/her actual residence period will be refunded.
- 2.4. All residents must vacate their rooms on or before the specified date to be decided by the International House Management Committee. Summer residence will be arranged and paid for separately. Eligibility of summer residence is to be decided by the International House Management Committee.
- 2.5. Upon check-out, residents are responsible for cleaning their rooms as well as returning their keys, smart cards (if applicable), and other hostel properties to the International House Management Office. If a resident fails to comply, the hostel deposit (including key deposit) will be forfeited.

Article 3: Points to Note

- 3.1. For the occurrence of any illness, emergency or unusual events, residents should immediately report to the Warden, the Senior Resident Tutor, the Resident Tutors or the Hostel staff for assistance.
- 3.2. All activities held in the Hostel premises should be conducted in accordance with the relevant regulations.
- 3.3. To maintain the smooth operation of the Hostel, the Warden, the Senior Resident Tutor, the Resident Tutors and the Hostel staff would patrol the Hostel regularly. Normally the resident's consent would be sought before entering his/her room. However, the aforementioned officials are entitled to enter the rooms without the resident's permission in the following circumstances:
 - 3.3.1. an accident is believed to have occurred inside the room;
 - 3.3.2. for maintenance and security reasons;
 - 3.3.3. to investigate violations of Hostel Regulations or to distribute hostel supplies.
 - 3.3.4. any other exceptional cases as deemed appropriate by the Warden.
