

Talks on “Preventing and Managing Workplace Sexual Harassment”

Two tailor-made talks on “Preventing and Managing Workplace Sexual Harassment” were organized by the Committee Against Sexual Harassment on 24 & 25 June for staff of junior grades. The talks attracted about 80 staff members from 4 colleges and various units. The highlights of the talks included sexual harassment in context, liabilities, preventive measures and case sharing. Ms. Yvonne Luk, Secretary of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment, shared with the participants examples and real life cases of sexual harassment in the workplace.

The participants actively raised questions about the University’s policy and procedures against sexual harassment. Overall, they found the talks informative and very useful in enhancing their understanding and awareness of the sexual harassment issues.

Participants raised practical questions about the University’s policy and procedures against sexual harassment.

About 80 staff members from 4 Colleges and various units attended the talks

