

Symposium on Olympic Research and Olympic Education:
A Chinese Perspective

Date: September 22, 2007 (Saturday)
Time: 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Venue: LT1, Esther Lee Building, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

To celebrate the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games and to foster the educational concept of Olympism to schoolteachers, the Department of Sports Science and Physical Education, Faculty of Education, will hold the captioned Symposium on 22nd September 2007. With the many dimensions that Olympic research and education encompasses, and in which sport is being used as one of the vital means in promoting human values, our symposium would address these concerns through various perspectives, including cultural, social, economic, educational and biological science.

We are honored to have the Hon. Timothy T.T. Fok, GBS, JP, President of the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China to be our Officiating Guest. In addition, we have invited five renowned scholars from China to share with our local in-service teachers and students their insights. Lastly, a kick-off ceremony will mark the opening of a research project, named “Fostering Children’s Moral Development through Physical Education with Olympism”, sponsored by the Research Grants Council (RGC), Hong Kong, China.

Organized by: Department of Sports Science and Physical Education
(SSPE), The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Co-organized by: Physical Education Unit, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Sponsored by: Faculty of Education, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Speakers' list

Professor Wang Qing

Research Institute of Sport Science, the States Sports General Administration of China

Professor Ren Hai

Centre for Olympic Studies, Beijing Sport University

Professor Lu Yuanzhen

South China Normal University

Professor Ji Liu

East China Normal University

Professor Feng Lianshi

Research Institute of Sport Science, the States Sports General Administration of China