Complete Registration Note 3

Note 1: If you do not complete the online registration, you will NOT be able to perform course selection and collect Student ID Card.

Note 2: Please do NOT send the documentary proof for fulfilling the admission condition(s) to any Graduate School email accounts, as it may delay the processing of your submission.

Note 3: Students will receive a v-code via HK mobile and email (that you provided in your application form) from ITSC two weeks before admission date. Please use the v-code to retrieve CWEM password at https://cai.itsc.cuhk.edu.hk/ for course enrolment and other services in MyCUHK.
1. Perform Registration and outstanding condition of admission

   Please follow the attached Registration Guide to confirm registration. You may register provisionally if you have not yet fulfilled your admission condition(s). Under such circumstances, your student status is not yet effective and you will NOT be allowed to commence study. In addition, you are NOT eligible for (i) Postgraduate Studentship (if applicable); (ii) scholarships, bursaries and other awards (if applicable); and (iii) use of library and other University facilities.

   Please settle the deposit by the payment due date and perform online registration 14 working days after settling the deposit according to the guideline. Please check the status at Online System for Applications for Admission to Postgraduate Programmes (Please select “Check Online Registration Status”) 2 working days after performing online registration. The caution money will be collected when you assume study.

   Students with any of the condition(s) of admission as stipulated in the Admission Notification are required to present the relevant document(s) listed therein before the Condition Fulfilment Deadline. The deposit, once paid, will not be refunded except in the sole circumstance that the student can provide before the deadline documentary proof from the institution that he/she is unable to fulfil the relevant condition.

2. Concurrent Registration

   According to Clause 3.4 of the General Regulations Governing Postgraduate Studies: “A student shall not be registered simultaneously for another course of study or research leading to the award of a degree, diploma or certificate at this University or at any other tertiary institution unless an application has been submitted in advance to the Graduate Division concerned, endorsed by the Faculty concerned and approved by the Graduate Council. A student in breach of this regulation shall be required to discontinue studies at the University.”

   Applications for concurrent registration must be submitted before registration with this University (please download the application form from Online System for Applications for Admission to Postgraduate Programmes). Registration will only be accepted if either concurrent registration is approved or you withdraw from the other programme. You may also consult the Division concerned for change of registration date, if necessary.

3. Taking up full-time employment

   According to Clause 3.5 of the General Regulations Governing Postgraduate Studies: “A student registered for a full-time course of study or research shall not take up any full-time employment, paid or unpaid, during term time within the normative period of study except by permission of the Graduate Council. Recipient of a Postgraduate Studentship shall not take up full-time or part-time employment, except by permission of the Graduate Council.”

   Students of full-time programmes who wish to take up full-time employment (or full-time/part-time employment for PGS holders) should seek approval from the Graduate Division and Graduate Council by submitting a written application to the Head of the Graduate Division concerned before taking up the employment.

4. Checklist for registration at the Graduate School Office

   4.1 To complete your registration, you are required to report to the Graduate School on or before the Condition Fulfilment Deadline stated in your Admission Notification and present/provide the documents listed below:

   4.1.1 Admission Notification;

   4.1.2 Originals of degree/professional certificates (Students from the Chinese mainland should also present the degree certificate and graduation certificate issued by the 「學位評定委員會」 or the university);

   4.1.3 Identity document - for verification purpose, the document to be presented must be the one stated in your application form. The name stated therein must also be identical with that on the academic credentials. Any changes must be notarized;

   4.1.4 Travel documents (e.g., Entry Permit, Passport) and valid entry visa – student visa (in which ‘The Chinese University of Hong Kong’ should be stated as the institution where the approved course is offered) or other valid visas for studying in Hong Kong (e.g. a work permit for taking up full-time employment in Hong Kong, a dependant visa, etc.);

   4.1.5 Students with condition(s) of admission please also see the Section on Conditional Offers below.

   4.1.6 Original final transcript

4.2 Conditional Offers

   Students with any of the condition(s) of admission as stipulated in the Admission Notification have to present the relevant document(s) listed therein. Otherwise, they will not be allowed to commence study. For those who eventually fail to attain the academic standard required, the admission offer will become null and void.
5. Deferred Admission
If you are unable to arrive at Hong Kong to commence your study by the specified date, you may apply to defer admission by using the “Application Form for Deferred Admission” (downloaded from: Online System for Applications for Admission to Postgraduate Programmes). The maximum period of deferred admission is one year from the original date of admission. Students who are approved to defer admission have to pay a non-refundable retention fee at HK$300 per 6-month period.

6. Hong Kong Identity Card
Upon arrival at Hong Kong, you are required to apply for a Hong Kong Identity (HKID) Card at the Immigration Department of Hong Kong (Tel. 2824 6111). Please submit a copy of your HKID card to the Graduate School within 1 month from your registration to complete your student record.

7. Applicants who have applied for more than one programme
The admission process is conducted in several rounds. If more than one programme recommends admitting the same applicant in one round, he/she will be informed in writing and asked to choose one of them. If only one programme recommends admitting the applicant, he/she will receive one offer without the option mentioned. He/She may choose to decline the offer and wait for results of later rounds. However, this decision is irrevocable, as this place will be offered to another successful applicant. Most programmes make offers in earlier rounds and will only continue if places are left. Normally fewer offers will be made towards June and afterwards. If you wish to inquire about your other application(s), please contact the relevant Divisions.

8. Preparation for New Academic Year
In preparation for the new academic year, some useful information is posted at our website. Please read it to get ready. (For PCLL students, please contact the Faculty of Law for details)

9. Term Dates and Teaching Timetable
The term dates and teaching timetable of the next academic year will be uploaded to the Graduate School Homepage in late July/early August. For initial reference, you may visit check the “University Almanac” and “Teaching Timetable” for relevant information of the current academic year.

10. Course Selection
You will be required to select courses according to the study scheme and advice from your Division after you have completed your registration. The course selection exercise will be conducted in mid-August. You may also select courses during add/drop period. You may refer to the Postgraduate Student Handbook for information for the current year for reference (information for 2017-18 will be updated in early August). (For PCLL students, please contact the Faculty of Law for details)

11. Important reference materials
You may also refer to the “General Regulations Governing Postgraduate Studies”, “Tuition fee & other fees to pay” and “Honesty in Academic Work: A Guide for Students and Teachers” with information for the current year for reference (information for 2017-18 will be updated in early August)

12. Change of Personal Data
If there are changes to your personal data, please inform us according to the following steps:

- For students who have already paid the deposit AND performed online registration: Please update the information online at CUSIS via MyCUHK.
- For students who will only settle the deposit upon their registration at our Office in person on or before the Admission Date: Please update your information at Online System for Applications for Admission to Postgraduate Programmes.

13. Announcements and Guidelines on Health Policies
To obtain updates on the University’s health policies in relation to infectious diseases such as Human Swine Flu (Influenza A H1N1), please visit http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/health_promote_protect regularly for announcements and guidelines for students. New students from outside of Hong Kong may be required to take precautionary measures prior to their arrival at Hong Kong.
14. University Health Service

The University Health Service provides on-campus medical, dental and health promotion services to full-time students and staff members and their dependants. Our medical team includes eight physicians, five dental surgeons and other allied health professionals. The health clinic is equipped with a minor operating theatre, a dispensary, a medical laboratory and a physiotherapy unit to provide primary medical and dental care services. For specific or more serious medical conditions, the clinic can arrange referrals to specialists.

The Health Education Unit organises regular talks, student activities, awareness campaigns and vaccination programmes.

The Dental Unit provides both preventive and curative services, as well as dental prostheses.

Appointment can be made via telephone, internet or in person. Medical services are generally free of charge, while Dental Unit charges a nominal fee.

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
Donations and Projects Management Unit, Bursary
Notes on Payment of Student Fees

In line with the environmental policy of the University to use less paper, no printed student fee debit notes (“fee note”) will be sent to students by post. Instead, two weeks prior to the payment due date, the Donations and Projects Management Unit, Bursary (“DPU”) will send e-mails to notify the students that the fee notes have been issued. Students have to check their own Campus-Wide E-mail System (“CWEM”) mailbox and login Chinese University Student Information System (“CUSIS”) to enquire the details of the fee debit notes. Below is a tentative billing schedule for your reference:
