

Editor's Notes

Studies in Chinese Linguistics (SCL) was first published in 1980, with its initial focus being on the research of historical Chinese linguistics and Chinese language education. For more than thirty years, the journal has been a leading journal in its field in Hong Kong as well as in the Greater China Region. Starting from this volume, SCL is uniquely positioned as an international journal dedicated to publishing high quality research papers on comparative studies of Chinese grammar, which we hope will serve as an international forum for parametric studies aimed at enriching our understanding of Chinese.

編者的話

《中國語文研究》於一九八零年創刊，最初主要刊登偏重漢語歷史語言學、語文教學等的文章。經過三十多年的努力，本刊成為香港以至華人地區一份重要的學術期刊。從本期開始，《中國語文研究》將定位成為一份面向國際、具有特色的學術刊物，出版優秀的論文，專注漢語語法的比較研究，尤其是通過參數理論的研究來豐富我們對中國語文的認識，希望能成為不受地域限制的學術平台。
