

Global Citizenship Education

Lecture on global challenges:
Piloting an alternative general education Pathway

Prof. LEUNG, Mei Yee, Director, Office of University General Education, CUHK
Dr. CHIU, Julie, Office of University General Education Associate Director, CUHK
Dr. SZETO, Wai Man, Lecturer, Office of University General Education, CUHK
Miss LEUNG, Yuen Kei, Teaching Assistant, Office of University General Education, CUHK

In the 21st Century, global challenges are expanding and changing faster than ever before. Understanding some of the biggest social, environmental and economic challenges facing the world is integral to tackling them. This course aims at enhancing students' global awareness and fostering global citizenship by introducing some pressing challenges that the world is facing today. Students will learn to identify global issues, analyze the complexity of these challenges, reflect on their responsibilities of being global citizens, and discuss with their peers to formulate possible solutions to make the world a better place.

TED Talk Presentations by Students:

Learning Outcomes:

-
 Identify and describe major global challenges and their multiple dimensions
-
 Analyze the challenges in its cultural or historical contexts
-
 Weigh options or formulate possible solutions when addressing global challenges
-
 Reflect on the responsibilities of being global citizens
-
 Communicate ideas and information to their peers

Experiential Learning:

