

Application for Summer Residence at I-House 2026

Eligibility

All full-time CUHK students are welcome to apply for summer residence 2026. Priority will be given to current I-House residents who can produce relevant official proof of genuine and justifiable need for on campus accommodation.

Important note

Repair and maintenance works will be carried out at I-House during the summer. Contractors are reminded to take appropriate measures to minimize the noise, smell and dust generated, but please note that they cannot be completely eliminated. As extensive summer maintenance works will be conducted at Blocks 1 and 2, room allocation will be primarily arranged in Blocks 3 to 5.

Application (Deadline: 27 April 2026 / Result announcement: by 7 May 2026)

(For late applications, please email to ihouse@cuhk.edu.hk to inquire about availability.)

application results. Rates do not include air-conditioning fees. For Blocks 1 & 2, A/C credits could be purchased by Octopus Card at $1.5 per hour. For Blocks 3 - 5, HK$12 per head per night will be collected together with the residence fee for in-room air-conditioning.

 I-House will be closed for cleaning and preparation for the next academic year during Period S. Only applicants with very special situations will be allowed to stay.

Notes

- Block/room will be assigned by the International House Management Office. Current I-House residents may not be assigned to their original rooms.
- Room swapping will NOT be allowed.
- By accepting the summer residence offer, successful applicants undertake to be relocated to another room/flat/block during their stay period when the situation requires (e.g. due to pandemic outbreak, maintenance works or administrative reasons).
- For final year students whose student status will expire on 31 July 2026, they will not be allowed to stay at I-House afterwards.
- Residents should check-out on the last day of their approved residence period by 12 noon (Period S by 10 am).
