DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

Student Exchange Programme with University of Kent and University of Warwick, UK

Department of Sociology is now offering student exchange programme in the academic year of 2020/21 with

- (1) School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research, University of Kent, UK
- (2) Department of Sociology, University of Warwick, UK

The captioned exchange programme is established to provide our undergraduate students the opportunity to study at one of the most prestigious departments of Sociology in UK, and allow students to gain a firsthand understanding and experience of foreign culture, society and college life.

Quota

Under the programme, our department will select up to one undergraduate student to the University of Kent for exchange of one academic year (more preferable), or up to two students for exchange for the 1st term. Our department will also select up to one undergraduate student to the University of Warwick for exchange of one academic year (more preferable), or up to two students for exchange for the 1st term.

The University of Kent and the University of Warwick will also send undergraduate students to study at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Credit transfers can be done in the same manner as the other university exchange programmes.

Eligibility

Full-time undergraduate students majoring in Sociology, except those who will graduate in Term 1 of 2019/20, are eligible for the exchange programme. University of Warwick is open to year 2 or above students.

Students are expected to have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above. Year 1 students will also be assessed by their HKDSE results or other examination results.
